

KISII UNIVERSITY

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: 2026/2027 LANGUAGE EDUCATION POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS IN FOUNDATIONAL LITERACY

The Language Education Research Chair at Kisii University invites applications from qualified candidates for competitive postgraduate research scholarships in Foundational Literacy under the Harnessing Education Research for Impact in Africa (HERI-Africa) Programme.

HERI-Africa is a transformative Pan-African initiative dedicated to revitalizing Africa-led, university-based education research. The programme seeks to significantly enhance the continent's contribution to global education research from the current 3% to 30% by 2050. HERI Africa strives to strengthen Kenya's education research system to deliver credible, relevant evidence that informs policy formulation, practice, and improves learning outcomes.

Interested applicants are encouraged to submit their applications in accordance with the prescribed eligibility requirements on or before 14th August 2026

For detailed information on the scholarship, eligibility criteria, and application procedures, please visit the Kisii University website at www.kisiiuniversity.ac.ke

Kisii University is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Women, persons with disabilities, and candidates from marginalized and underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.
